

UUBEETAANI

Congratulations to Allison Sarracino!

Anderson Student, Allison Sarracino of Laguna Pueblo was selected for the American Indian Business Leaders (AIBL) Annual Scholarship. The AIBL is a national non-profit organization dedicated to empowering business students to engage in educational experiences outside the classroom.

Allison was chosen from a national pool of candidates. She will represent the UNM Chapter in the upcoming AIBL National Conference.

Kudos to Colleagues

To Natalie Johnson for her ever-ready smile and willingness to assist with LDoE administration.

Francine Correa for putting together the Bus Driver's training and making all the arrangements to feed us and provide snacks. She is greatly appreciated and I hope she gets more back in return.

Important Dates and Opportunities to Remember

April 2011... Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Now is the time to apply for the FAFSA online. You can use last years tax information to initiate the application. Later you can update your SAR to include updates and changes to the form. This application covers all federal assistance: 1) PELL Grants; 2) SEOG; 3) Work-Study; 4) Stafford Student Loans etc. To get started go to www.fafsa.ed.gov. It's a first come first serve system; so the sooner past January 1st the better.

April 15, 2011..AgDiscovery Summer Internship Program. AgDiscovery is an outreach program to help students between the ages of 12 to 17, depending on institution, learn about careers in animal science, veterinary medicine, agribusiness and plant pathology. For more information and an application go online to www.aphis.usda.gov/agdiscovery/

May 1, 2011....University of Oklahoma Scholarships for NM Students.
